

Dear Trader!

PaxForex is one of the fastest growing brokers with a set of advantages, deservedly valued by many traders. Those who are just taking the first steps in financial market, and experienced customers, who have long seen us as a reliable partner, value the company for its attitude to each client and its desire to do more than may be required.

For each company is not easy to gain a foothold among the large number of bigger and more experienced competitors. However, thanks to constant improvement, faith in success and our daily readiness to achieve the best results, today we can confidently say that we provide comfortable trading and the best trading conditions on the financial market.

1. Spread

Our spreads are the lowest on the market. We tried to make it optimum for you. In addition, we provide accounts with fixed spreads.

2. Leverage

Leverage increases the cost of one point, so you must use it with caution. With small deposit, using a big leverage is risky. That is why we offer 1:500 as the highest leverage.

3. Mini account

This type of account was created for newbies and for those who prefer to deposit small amounts. The minimum deposit for this account is only 10$.

4. Support

Forex market works 24 hours 5 days a week, so we provide round the clock online support. Our operators answer the questions fast and considerate. You can contact our customer support team by email, phone or live chat.

5. No commissions or fees

PaxForex does not charge any fees for the external transfer of funds to your Forex account except for Credit/Debit Card deposits, and if used, a 2.5% charge is applied to cover a portion of the total charges made by the card processors involved in the transactions. For all other payment methods, we do not apply fees and we will credit your Forex account with the received net amount. You may be charged for transferring funds using an external method unrelated to PaxForex. Moreover, PaxForex recovers all fees for deposits of $300 or above.

6. Free trading recommendations (signals)

Many traders prefer to use trading signals. Sometimes they help to make the right decision in opening/closing position. PaxForex publish trading recommendations as our experienced forex analysts prepare them. As long as traders follow our recommendations, they should be able to profit in a similar manner as we do. As practice shows, in 80% of cases our signals help to gain profit if traders follow it immediately after publishing. We send trading recommendations every day at our clients' registration emails and post it at our site.

7. Safety

PaxForex ensures safety, security and reliability at all times using advanced encryption technology to ensure privacy and security over the Internet. All personal information is completely confidential; we do not share your information with any third parties. We work with 7 best liquidity providers: Credit Suisse, Barclays, Deutsche Bank, Goldman Sachs, UBS, Merrill Lynch, and Morgan Stanley. The funds are held in segregated accounts, specially designated as "Clients Accounts", with a number of investment-grade European Banks that are closely monitored. PAXFOREX has similar capital adequacy requirements to Banks and we are members of an Investor Compensation Program.

8. Bonuses

PaxForex provide competitive Forex bonuses that can be used for trading and margin.
